TEB Forum Vienna 2026: „Energy transition in CEE” June 2-3, Juni 2026, at WeXelerate

Secure your free booth and/or stage slot now!

Startups and SMEs based in Vienna that wish to secure a booth and/or a presentation slot on stage at the TEB Forum Vienna 2026 are invited to apply.

Application and selection:

- Briefly describe, in concise terms, what innovative solution(s) your startup or company offers in the energy sector and why it would benefit from participating.
- Please also indicate whether you are interested in a booth and/or a presentation slot on stage!
- Feel free to attach any additional documents or references.
- The description may be submitted in German or English.

Applications submitted to technologieservices@wirtschaftsagentur.at will be accepted until May 26, 2026, with the subject line “TEB Forum Vienna 2026.” Up to 3 free booth spaces and up to 3 stage slots will be awarded to innovative Viennese startups and companies.

Selection will be made by an internal jury. The Vienna Business Agency reserves the right to exclude applications that do not fit the theme.

The allocation of tickets constitutes aid within the meaning of the Commission’s De Minimis Regulation (EU) 2023/2831 of December 13, 2023. Pursuant to this Regulation, the total amount of de minimis aid granted to a single undertaking may not exceed EUR 300,000 over a period of three fiscal years.

By accepting the tickets, the recipient confirms that this grant does not exceed the aforementioned maximum amount and that all requirements of the Regulation are met.

By submitting your application, you agree to the above conditions for participation. Tickets are non-refundable. Participation in the selection process is free of charge. There is no entitlement to tickets.

The “Innovative Vienna” (IWI) project helps strengthen the innovative capacity of Viennese companies, encourages collaboration in the development of human-centered digital technologies and innovative solutions for climate action and the circular economy, and inspires young Viennese people to pursue careers of the future.
